

DAVE MARLEY

Pharm.D.

The Speaker

As the founder and CEO of a multimillion-dollar company, Dave Marley combines his business acumen, marketing skills and service approach to business to help move people and organizations forward. As a professional speaker, Dave has experienced what other speakers can only talk about, which is supported by Pharmacy Development Services awarding him the prestigious Walking The Talk Award. Being a member of the American Pharmacists Association fueled Dave's love and passion for speaking. With an appeal that transcends occupation, he combines ideas with wit and wisdom to be recognized as one of the most sought-after speakers in North America. Whether he's talking about his experiences as a businessowner or the eye-opening challenges in his daily life, his audiences always relate to his experiences, struggles and lessons.

The Businessman

Dave built his multimillion-dollar business from the ground up, with annual revenue at Marley Drug reaching $12 million. His groundbreaking drugstore in Winston-Salem, North Carolina was recognized in 2017 by Greater Winston-Salem, Inc. as the Small Business of the Year. The winner of the Perseverance

Award at the University of Buffalo, Dave is the essence of the adage that "one size doesn't fit all." His approach to business is simple. If you serve people, the business will follow, which is evidenced by his astonishing and consistent business growth year after year. Winner of the Piedmont Business Ethics Award in 2013, and various other business awards, his passion has always been to serve people unlike any other. Dave founded Marley Charitable Trust in 2020.

The Person

Dave was born in Philadelphia, raised in upstate New York, resides in Winston-Salem, North Carolina, and travels the world. He received his Bachelor of Science in Pharmaceutical Sciences from the University of Buffalo and his Doctor of Pharmacy Degree from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. He is the proud father of two boys and a loving husband to his wife, Elizabeth. Dave credits The Grateful Dead for being the major influencers and driving force behind his success. The Dead came into Dave's life at the perfect time, giving him the sense of self and a place to belong, both of which he'd yearned for. If Dave's not speaking or writing, you can catch him playing ice hockey or fishing off the coast of North Carolina.

The Author

From the moment Dave Marley sat down to write Finding Your Way, he wanted to take people to places they have never explored or, if they have, remind them how and why they got there. Dave is brilliant at presenting something obvious in a completely nonobvious way. His ability to take a subject and make it more understandable and induce a moment where you say "Wow, I never thought of it that way" is why his popularity as a speaker makes him so in-demand. His book will confirm your beliefs and challenge you to think differently. As Dave says, "God had a purpose. Make good out of all the chaos."

The Guarantee

Everyone who hears Dave's message leaves with the realization that life may support those who coast and select "easy," but it rewards those who overcome difficulties. He will take you where you have never been...guaranteed! Dave will help you develop a mindset that reflects accountability, transparency, intention and innovation – qualities too often lacking in our society.
