

SPEAKER INTRODUCTION

Our speaker today was the kid who felt out of place; the last pick, the guy eating alone, and the one without an invite. He built a persona based on the things he did, the people he wanted to fit in with, and the person he believed he wanted to be.

Today, he is regarded as a serial entrepreneur who just recently sold a multimillion-dollar business, which he built from the ground up. He was born in Philadelphia, raised in upstate New York, and now resides in Winston-Salem, North Carolina. He received his Bachelor of Science in Pharmaceutical Sciences from the University of Buffalo, and his Doctor of Pharmacy Degree from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

In addition to his success in business and being an in-demand speaker, he is a prolific and accomplished author, which is evidenced by his bestselling book Finding Your Way. His book and presentations have influenced the lives of millions throughout North America by challenging people to become what they are meant to be.

He will be available immediately following his presentation to sign copies of his book. We're excited and honored he is with us.
